8. THE RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECTS

8.1. The data subject has the right to access information related to the data processing concerning them as defined in Article 15 of the GDPR (Right of Access), including but not limited to information on:

- which personal data are processed,
- for what purpose and on what legal basis,
- the source of the data,
- the planned duration of storage or the criteria for determining the duration,
- to whom, when, and which personal data the University has provided access or to whom it has transferred personal data,

- what rights, complaint options, and remedies the data subject has concerning data processing.

8.2. The data subject has the right to have inaccurate (incorrect or incomplete) personal data concerning them rectified under Article 16 of the GDPR (Right to Rectification).

8.3. The data subject has the right to have their personal data erased (Right to Erasure) under Article 17 of the GDPR, where:

- the personal data are no longer necessary for the purpose for which they were collected or otherwise processed,
- the data subject withdraws consent, and there is no other legal basis for the processing,
- the personal data have been unlawfully processed,
- the personal data must be erased to comply with a legal obligation.

Erasure will not occur if the processing is necessary:

- for compliance with a legal obligation or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or the exercise of official authority,
- for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims,
- for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes, or statistical purposes, where the right to erasure is likely to render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of the objectives of that processing.

8.4. The data subject has the right to request the restriction of processing concerning their personal data (Right to Restriction of Processing) under Article 18 of the GDPR, where:

- the data subject contests the accuracy of the personal data, for a period enabling the University to verify the accuracy of the personal data,
- the processing is unlawful, and the data subject opposes the erasure of the data and requests the restriction of their use instead, or
- the University no longer needs the personal data for processing purposes, but the data subject requires them for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims.

Personal data subject to restriction may only be processed, except for storage, with the data subject's consent or for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims, or for protecting the rights of another natural or legal person, or for reasons of important public interest of the Union or a Member State.

8.5. In the case of data processing based on consent, the data subject has the right to withdraw their consent at any time without giving a reason, under Article 7(3) of the GDPR (Right to Withdraw Consent). The withdrawal must be made in writing or in the same form in which the consent was given. The withdrawal does not affect the lawfulness of the data processing carried out before the withdrawal.

8.6. In the case of data processing based on consent or the performance of a contract, the data subject has the right to receive the personal data concerning them that they have provided to the University in a commonly used electronic form or to request the University to transfer the data to another data controller under Article 20 of the GDPR (Right to Data Portability).

8.7. The data subject can exercise their rights free of charge by contacting the contact person mentioned in Section 1 or the Data Protection Officer. In most cases, identification of the data subject will be required to exercise these rights, and in some cases (e.g., exercising the Right to Rectification), additional evidence may be needed. The University will assess the request to exercise rights within one month at the latest. If necessary, considering the complexity of the request and the number of requests, this period may be extended by a further two months, with the data subject being informed of the extension within one month.

9. COMPLAINTS AND REMEDIES

Any complaints related to data processing can be made to the contact person mentioned in Section 1 or the Data Protection Officer (adatvedelem@pte.hu). If you wish to submit a complaint by post, you can address it to 7622 Pécs Vasvári Pál u. 4., to the contact person or the Data Protection Officer mentioned in Section 1.

If you believe that your personal data has been unlawfully processed or that there is an imminent threat of such unlawful processing, you may also contact the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (mailing address: 1363 Budapest, Pf. 9, phone: +36 (1) 391-1400, email: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu, website: <https://naih.hu>).

In case of violation of your data protection rights, you may also take the matter to court, and the lawsuit can be initiated before the competent court based on your residence or habitual place of stay.
