

Battyáni Réka

Career Advisor, Trainer

About me

As a trainer and advisor, I support students in dealing with the challenges of international mobility, from preparing for their time abroad through their stay to returning home.

I also support students with creative career counselling using OH Cards. In my work, I find it important to create an empathetic and accepting atmosphere and to use a solution-focused approach.

Relevant Professional Experience

I worked as an International Coordinator at the Faculty of Business and Economics at the University of Pécs for more than seven years. During this time, I supported the international mobility of hundreds of students, academic staff and colleagues. Based on my own experience, I support students in dealing with challenges related to international mobility, such as pre-departure anxiety, culture shock and readjustment after returning home. I also provide support through creative career counselling.
